Greek Cabinet Considers Situation.

The Greek cabinet met to consider the situation, and a few hours should show what Greece's future attitude will be. The Greek government has again affirmed its friendliness to the allies, but has not yet taken the steps re-quired to prevent Greece from being counted among the friends of the central powers.

The entente allies will not permit any delay; the position of the Serbian armies makes any prolongation of the present uncertainty impossible. Already the Serbians are making what may be their last stand before Monastir and also on the plains of Kossovo. Weather Retards Bulgarians.

Como, Italy, via Paris, Nov. 21, 5.40 p. m.—Porter Charlton, the American who recently was tried on a charge of murdering his wife, and who was found gullty and sentenced to six years and eight months imprisonment, was released today. Charlton is in good health and spirits.

By reason of the time that Charlton had been under restraint and an additional one year taken from his ten-tence under an amnesty, Charlton was ompelled to serve only 29 days in prison following his conviction and sentence. Chariton killed his wife in 1910, placed the body in a trunk and threw the trunk into Lake Como.

said, crouching behind a table. The police said Linnell stated he slipped the catch of a window while in con-ference with the directors earlier in the day, and entered the bank with the intention of getting his revolver.

Held in $5,000 Bail. Linnell was held in $5,000 for a hear-ing on November 27. When bail was not furnished he was taken to Spring-

PROVIDENCE MOTORMAN

MURDERED IN HIS HOME Three Bullet Wounds and Evidence of Heavy Blows on the Head. Providence, R. L. Nov. 21.-Frederick

H. Bishop, a motorman employed by the Rhode Island company, was found murdered in his home at 1658 Westminster street today. His body, which Thomas S. MacArthur, a boarder in the house, has been detained as a possible witness, but the police say they have found nothing to indicate that he has any knowledge of the killing. Bishop's wife, who had spent Saturday night and Sunday with relatives in Pawtucket, returned home tonight. She was unaware of her husband's death until she entered the house police headquarters late tonight. He and MacArthur said that they came home at 2 o'clock Sunday morning and that they heard no disturbance in the house. MacArthur's room adjoins that in which Bishop's body was found, and Launey's room is next to that in which Bishop was apparently first attacked. On the floor of the sitting room the police found a special constable's badge and a leather revolver holster. Mrs. Bishop said that neither belonged to her husband.

The police theory was that Bishop find an intrud bedroom, that he grappied with the man and was hit over the head with a revolver and that the two went into the sitting room, where Bishop was

FIVE MEN DROWNED

OFF ROCKAWAY POINT Following Capsizing of 24-Foot Motor Boat in a Squall.

New York, Nov. 21.—Five men, two of them brothers, were drowned off Rockaway Point today following the capsizing of their 24-foot motor boat in a squall. The others of the party kept afloat until rescued.

The stalling of the engine of the little craft, owned and plioted by Captain Daniel Lorenz, placed it at the tain Daniel Lorenz, placed it at the mercy of the strong wind and tide. The boat began to fill with water and the two lifeboats on the boat were to William Webber and Henry who could not swim. A huge wave suddenly overturned the boat and Lo-renz, John and Charles Ullinger, Jo-seph Hoffman and Albert Benovicz were drowned. Webber and Ross were
